

RRN process for updating or developing new appendices or updating the standards

Who the groups are
Lead Reviewer	Review Group	Expert Reference Group (ERG)	Standard Sub-Group
Lead reviewer responsible for following the review process and producing the drafts and completing the record sheet	Independent experts and people with lived experience with specific expertise (not more than six in the review group). In certain situations where it is difficult for all members of the review group to meet, individual calls may be made	Official existing sector network	Representatives from CQC, NHSE, people with lived experience, UK nations. human rights groups

